UNFOLD NETWORK
MEETING: CONCLUSIONS

February 7, 2017 LIMA
Amsterdam, Room 2

The final network meeting on UNFOLD, to reflect and draw conclusions.

After the fruitful network meetings and expert meetings, where we discussed the conceptual framework and the implications of reinterpretation, we believe it is now crucial to use this last meeting to collect all the questions and answers, look at the practice of reinterpretation through Joost Rekveld's results, agree with the next steps and write a collective end report.

One important goal of this last meeting is the configuration of a collective document that will be used as a conclusion of this year and an invitation for the next one to come.
